

Season 2025 A Season of Belonging

JOB POSTING: Theatre Artist/Educator

Effective: August 18, 2025

Reports to: Education Director & Artistic Director

Position: Full-time salaried position

Hours: Tuesday – Saturday
(some weekend and evening work will be required)

Location: On-site in Rosebud, Alberta

Summary: Join a team of dedicated theatre professionals who are passionate about creating great stories on stage, training the artists of tomorrow, and enriching people’s lives.

Rosebud Theatre & School of the Arts (RTSA) is looking for a highly skilled individual who possesses strong theatre skills, is a team player, and has a vision to serve the organization in the area of post-secondary theatre training while contributing to the attainment of Rosebud’s mission and mandate.

The ideal candidate is an authentic and innovative person with a background working with both students and professionals. They are a theatre professional who is also a teacher (ideally with an MFA), who can specialize in one or more of the following areas: movement for the actor, voice & text, theatre history, singing, technical theatre, theatre design, or choreography & dance. They have an interest in working in the faith-based not-for-profit world, and care about the performing arts and arts education, especially in rural Alberta.

They are community-minded, and able to inspire students and their colleagues to bring their best self to their work. They understand Rosebud’s unique brand and mission and can contribute to embodying that vision forward.

The position will include attending instructor meetings, education team meetings, and production meetings as required, as well as some committee work. This position is salaried and comes with a benefit package.

Season 2025 A Season of Belonging

The purpose of Rosebud Theatre & School of the Arts to enrich lives by offering grace and understanding through the art of storytelling, the practice of mentorship, and the gift of hospitality.

We believe that every person is created in the image of God and that all of humanity reflects different facets of God's character. We believe that all fall short of reflecting God's true spirit, but we also believe in the promise of redemption for all.

Within this context, Rosebud strives to honour and respect the diverse cultures, languages, abilities, and perspectives that each staff member brings to the organization.

We are dedicated to creating an inclusive environment that welcomes the humanity of our students, staff, contract instructors, guest artists, board members, donors, and patrons. We are committed to providing a supportive work and educational environment where the principles of equity, diversity, and inclusion are trained, fostered, and intentionally practiced. Through conscious reflection, and deliberate action and discussion at all levels, we aim to create a culture of care and safety where diversity can flourish.

All personnel policies related to employment – including hiring, compensation, promotion, benefits, job assignments, transfers, lay-offs, return from lay-offs, company sponsored programs or events, etc. – will be implemented without discrimination toward race, colour, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, family status, age, language, or national origin.

We are committed to recruiting and retaining a group of diverse, qualified staff members who advance Rosebud's mission in their respective vocations. Through a fair and equitable hiring process, the qualifications and values of each candidate are the primary criteria upon which hiring and promotion decisions are made.
